

Historic, archived document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

UNCLE SAM'S FOREST RANGERS #530

PROGRAM TITLE

SUSTAINING

ADVERTISER

AGENCY

WRITER

THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1943

DAY & DATE

11:30 - 12:00 NOON BLUE

TIME

PRODUCTION NOTES

CHARACTERS

CAST

BESS - KATHERINE CARD

JERRY - JOHN LARKIN

JIM - HARVEY HAYS

MARY - LUCILE HUSTING

WAYNE - CHARLES FLYNN

SOUND

REMARKS

MASTER Attached as broadcast:

This copy represents as accurately as possible the program. All alterations made in dramatic and/or musical content are contained herein.

Orchestra Leader

Production Director

Announcer

Agency Producer or Announcer

UNCLE SAM & FOREST RANGERS #530

SUSTAINING

THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1945

11:30 - 12:00 NOON BLUE

PRODUCTION NOTES

CHARACTERS

CAST
BESS - KATHERINE CAMP

JERRY - JOHN LARKIN

JIM - HARVEY HAYS

MARY - LUCILE HUSTING

WAYNE - CHARLES FLYNN

SOUND

REMARKS

ANNOUNCER: Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers!

MUSIC: Theme

ANNOUNCER: Today in our National Forests we are seeing the fruitful results of many, many years of planning. It takes careful planning over a long period of time to get the very best out of the forest resource in the way of good timber, plentiful forage for livestock, vital watershed protection and other products and services. It takes planning to guarantee that our forests will produce steadily the many important things demanded of them in war and in peace. Today our forests are yielding their harvest for war. And beyond the need for proper use of all these forest lands today, there must be careful and sound planning for the future as well, if our American forests are to meet the obligations that will be imposed upon them in the critical post-war years still to come... Now to the Pine Cone Ranger Station where we find Ranger Jim Robbins' wife, Bess, trying to calm down her husband's hot-headed assistant, Jerry Quick. It seems that Jerry, in for lunch from a nearby job, is pretty mad about something, and, well, here they are;

BESS: (FADING IN) Jerry, if you'll just cool off and tell me exactly what happened. I declare, I can't make head nor tail out of what you're saying.

Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers;

Theme

ANNOUNCER:

MUSIC:

ANNOUNCER:

Today in our National Forests we are seeing the fruits results of many, many years of planning. It takes careful planning over a long period of time to get the very best out of the forest resource in the way of good timber, plentiful forage for livestock, vital watershed protection and other products and services. It takes planning to guarantee that our forests will produce steadily the many important things demanded of them in war and in peace.
 Today our forests are yielding their harvest for war.
 And beyond the need for proper use of all these forest lands today, there must be careful and sound planning for the future as well, if our American forests are to meet the obligations that will be imposed upon them in the critical post-war years still to come... Now to the Pine Cone Ranger Station where we find Ranger Jim Hopkins' wife, Jess, trying to calm down her husband's hot-headed assistant, Jerry Quirk. It seems that Jerry, in for lunch from a nearby job, is pretty mad about something, and,
 well, here they are;
 (FADING IN) Jerry, if you'll just cool off and tell me exactly what happened. I declare, I can't make head nor tail out of what you're saying.

BESS:

JERRY: (EXCITED) Cool off? How'd you like it if you were me, sitting up at the top of a telephone pole all gooey with creosote and tryin' to splice wires in the raw wind, and along comes a ritzy sports roadster and there, big as life, sits your best girl alongside a smooth-looking guy all dolled up in a soldier's uniform. How would you like that, huh?

BESS: (LAUGHING) Oh, so that's what it's all about.. Well, I don't see why you need to get so excited about all that. You had no occasion to be ashamed of what you were doing, or the way you looked. I suspect Mary was kind of proud of you

JERRY: Naw, she was too busy listening to that...that Wayne Goodman she was with.

BESS: Oh, so it was Wayne, Andy Goodman's boy? Why yes, of course. I should have known because Mr. Goodman told me just the other day that Wayne was coming home for a short furlough.

JERRY: Yeah, and it can't be too short as far's I'm concerned.

BESS: Now, Jerry...

JERRY: Well, doggonnit, why does Mary think she's gotta be the whole entertainment committee while Wayne's home? There's plenty of other young gals around town?

BESS: Why of course Mary wants to help entertain our boys when they come home. After all, that boy must've gone through some terrible things down there where he's been.

JERRY:

(EXCITED) Good girl! How'd you like it if you were me, sitting up at the top of a telephone pole all cozy with crocote and trying to splice wires in the raw wind, and along comes a ratty sports reader and there, big as life, after your best girl alongside a smooth-looking guy all dolled up in a soldier's uniform. How would you like that, huh?

BESS:

(LAUGHING) Oh, so that's what it's all about.. Well, I don't see why you need to get so excited about all that. You had no occasion to be ashamed of what you were doing, or the way you looked. I suspect Mary was kind of proud of you.

JERRY:

Now, she was too busy listening to that... that Wayne Goodman she was with.

BESS:

Oh, so it was Wayne, Andy Goodman's boy? Why yes, of course. I should have known because Mr. Goodman told me just the other day that Wayne was coming home for a short turlough.

JERRY:

Yeah, and it can't be too short as far as I'm concerned.

BESS:

Now, Jerry...

JERRY:

Well, doggonnit, why does Mary think she's gotta be the whole entertainment committee while Wayne's home? There's plenty of other young gals around town?

BESS:

Why of course Mary wants to help entertain our boys when they come home. After all, that boy must've gone through some terrible things down there where he's been.

JERRY: Oh, I'm not begrudging Goodman havin' a swell time and all that. But you know how some of these gals go for a uniform, and....

BESS: Oh, I wouldn't worry about Mary.

JERRY: Yeah, but another thing..this Wayne Goodman's always been quite a playboy, you remember. He and Mary'll probably be chasing around to all the shows at Elk City and the dances and all. All the things Mary and I would like to do but never get a chance nowadays, because of the way work's stepped up on the Rne Cone.

BESS: It's funny they should have gone up into the forest first thing then, instead of starting right out for Elk City.

JERRY: Oh, Wayne said he wanted to see Jim especially. I guess he just wants to get all his duty calls over with 'fore he and Mary really step out.

BESS: He could have seen Jim some other time easy enough without making a special trip to the forest. You told Wayne where Jim was?

JERRY: Well, I told him Jim was workin' up in the Rock Creek timber sale area, but that he'd get his nice clothes all mussed if he tried to get back where he was.

BESS: Why Jerry! What did Wayne say to that?

JERRY: Aw, he just laughed, and said he was kinda hankerin' to get back around in God's country again after all the jungle and swamp wading he's had to do.

JERRY:

Oh, I'm not begrudging Goodman havin' a swell time and all that. But you know how some of these Gals go for a uniform, and...

BESS:

Oh, I wouldn't worry about Mary.

JERRY:

Yeah, but another thing, this Wayne Goodman's always been quite a playboy, you remember. He and Mary'll probably be chasing around to all the shows at Elk City and the dances and all. All the things Mary and I would like to do but never get a chance nowadays, because of the way work's stepped up on the line gone.

BESS:

It's funny they should have gone up into the forest first thing then, instead of starting right out for Elk City.

JERRY:

Oh, Wayne said he wanted to see Jim especially. I guess he just wants to get all his duty calls over with 'fore

he and Mary really step out.

BESS:

He could have seen Jim some other time easy enough without making a special trip to the forest. You told Wayne where Jim was?

JERRY:

Well, I told him Jim was workin' up in the Rock Creek timber safe area, but that he'd got his nice clothes all messed

if he tried to get back where he was.

BESS:

Why Jerry! What did Wayne say to that?

JERRY:

Aw, he just laughed, and said he was kinda hackin' to get back around in God's country again after all the jungle and swamp wading he's had to do.

1 BESS: Don't you believe he meant it, Jerry?

2 JERRY: Naw, he was just puttin' on an act for Mary, that's all.
3 I'll bet they just rode up the road a ways, and then 4 decided they'd see Jim some other time and headed for 5 Elk City.

6 BESS: Jerry, I think you're all wrong, about a lot of things.
7 I think you should have more faith in Mary..and another
8 thing...

9 JERRY: What's that?

10 BESS: Well, remember that Wayne Goodman has been away from home 11 and his friends and his country for almost a year. And 12 a great deal can happen to a young man in a year's time.

13 JERRY: Yeah, I suppose so.

14 BESS: I haven't seen Wayne yet myself since he came home, but I 15 wouldn't be surprised if he'd changed a lot. Maybe he 16 isn't the same frivolous playboy we used to know; maybe 17 he's become a fine, sensitive young man.

18 JERRY: Well, he does look older and more serious, I'll have to 19 admit that.

20 BESS: (LAUGHING) You're just jealous, that's all, Jerry. And 21 mad because they caught you upon top of a telephone pole
22 all messed up with creosote and all. I shouldn't wonder 23 but that Wayne Goodman would like to be doing just what 24 you were doing when he saw you.

100

101

102

103

104

105

106

107

108

109

110

111

112

JERRY: Well, I dunno, Mrs. Robbins..Wayne did seem mighty interested in my job, but I just thought he was trying to be polite..But I wonder why he was so anxious (FADE) to find Jim...

PAUSE:

FADE IN LOGGING SOUNDS, AXES AND SAWS, SUSTAIN IN BACKGROUND

WAYNE: (OFF) Hello there, Mr. Robbins.....

JIM: Huh? (HEARTILY) Well, doggone, it's Wayne Goodman! Wayne, you look like a million. Yes sir! A real American fighting man if ever I saw one!

WAYNE: Thank you, sir..Say, you've got quite a logging job going on here, haven't you? That tree coming down over there...what's it going to ....

JIM: I don't know how you kids found me way up in here but I'm sure glad you did. That goes for you too, Mary.

MARY: It was all Wayne's idea, Mr. Robbins. He insisted on seeing you first thing.

of the ... ..

...

...

...

...

...

...

1 JIM: Say, I appreciate that, Wayne. Because I know you kids must 2 be anxious to shove off to some of the brighter spots, huh?
3 MARY: But Mr. Robbins, Wayne wants to spend the whole day out here
4 with you.
5 JIM: All day?
6 WAYNE: That's right, sir, if we won't be in the way. Mary and I will 7 try to keep from getting underfoot, and we've 8 brought our lunch so you needn't worry about that.
9 JIM: Say, I don't get this, son. You mean you really want to 10 stick around out here all day? A whole day out of your 11 short leave?
12 WAYNE: I'd like to spend most of my leave out in the woods with you,
13 Mr Robbins, if it wouldn't bother you too much.
14 JIM: Well, I'll be jiggered!
15 MARY: (LAUGHING) So will Jerry, I imagine, when he finds out 16 Wayne has turned down all my brilliant plans for 17 entertaining him while he's home.
18 I'm afraid we overdid things when we teased poor Jerry, Wayne.
19 WAYNE: (LAUGHING) Well, he deserves it, the jealous coot.
20 JIM: I'm still kinda in the dark about all this, Wayne. Coming 21 back like this from front line action, I should think you'd 22 be all for spending your time whirlin' around the dance
23 floor with a pretty girl like Mary here and..
24 MARY: Thank you, sir!
25 JIM: And takin' in all the shows and..Say! You two aren't trying to tease an old hand like me now, are you?

The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work during the year. It is followed by a detailed account of the various projects and the results achieved.

The second part of the report deals with the financial statement of the year. It shows the income and expenditure of the organization and the balance sheet at the end of the year.

The third part of the report deals with the administrative matters of the organization. It includes a list of the members of the organization and a list of the committees and sub-committees.

The fourth part of the report deals with the future plans of the organization. It includes a list of the projects to be undertaken in the next year and a list of the resources required for these projects.

The fifth part of the report deals with the conclusions of the year. It includes a list of the achievements of the organization and a list of the lessons learned from the experience.

The sixth part of the report deals with the recommendations of the organization. It includes a list of the suggestions for the improvement of the organization and a list of the actions to be taken.

The seventh part of the report deals with the closing remarks of the organization. It includes a list of the thanks to the members and a list of the wishes for the future.

1 WAYNE: (SERIOUSLY) Not at all, Mr. Robbins. I really would like to 2 spend all the time I can out here with you. I guess that 3 sounds kinda funny, 'cause I know you all used to think I was 4 just sort of an irresponsible jitterbur or something..

5 MARY: Let me introduce the new, the serious young Mr. Wayne Goodman
6 to you, Mr. Robbins.

7 WAYNE: (LAUGHS) Yeah, I suppose it does sound kinda funny. I don't 8 know just how to explain it, but..

9 JIM: Let's sit down on this rock, son..Well now, what's this all about,
10 Wayne? ..No wait, first of all I wanta tell you 'I'll 11 be mighty pleased to have out out iwth me all you want to..
12 you've made me kinda proud just suggesting it.

13 WAYNE: Thanks..well, I dunno..you see, all that jitterbugging and 14 stuff kinda doesn't seem so important any more..I guess I'm 15 not the only one..I know there's a lot of other young fellows
16 in this man's Army that kinda fell the same way.

17 JIM: I understand. Go on, Wayne.

18 WAYNE: Well, you see I've been away from Winding Creek for almost 19 a year now. and I've seen and done a lot of things since I
20 left here..and some of it was kinda..well, it wasn't exactly 21 pleasant. Kinda makes you stop and think..Am I boring you 22 with all this, Mary?

23 MARY: Oh no, Wayne, please go on.

1. WAYNE: Well, ..even in the middle of the toughest battle, it sorta
2. makes us take a look-see inside and try to think what we've
3. been before we put on our uniform for Uncle Sam..and think
4. about what we intend to do with our lives after the uniform
5. can be put away. It didn't take me a whole year to decide
6. that I was bthrough with the kind of fellow I was before
7. the war, Mr. Robbins.

8. JIM: I understand, Wayne.

9. WAYNE: And when a fellow gets to thinkin'g bout what he'd like to
10. be and what he'd like to do afterwards, well, he naturally
11. wonders what it's going to be like back home and whether
12. or not the job he'd like to do will be available for him
13. to do it. See?

14. JIM: Yes, I see, Wayne. and this..this hankering of yours to be
15. out here in the Pine Cone Forest with me..that's part of
16. your thinking and planning?

17. WAYNE: Yeah..Mr. Robbins, it took a war to make me realize that the
18. best part of me came from this forest, right here near the
19. town I was born in and where I've always lived.
20. Frankly, I'd like to give some of that best part of me
21. back to the forest, and I'm wondering if there'll be
22. something that I can do..that's why I'd like to spend
23. all the time I can with you while I'm home.

24. MARY: Wayne, I think that's wonderful..and of course th'r 'll be
25. work to do for the forests, Wont there, Mr. Robbins?

...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...

...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...

...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...

...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...
...the ... of ...

1 JIM: (CLEARING THROAT) I just want to say this, Wayne.
2 You youngsters out there doing the heaviest fighting
3 in this war..you're not alone in your thinking and planning,
4 about things to be done in the years ahead.

5 WAYNE: I hoped you'd say that, Mr. Robbins.

6 JIM: Of course this Pine Cone Forest here is the one I know
7 most about. Right now it's going its part to
8 help win the war. But all over the country our forests
9 have gone to war..and there'll be plenty of work to be
10 done for the forests of America, Wayne, when this war's over.

11 WAYNE: That's what I want to know, Mr. Robbins.

12 JIM: You see, Wayne, we've hardly made a start yet on real
13 forest conservation in this country. Millions of acres
14 of our forests don't even yet have adequate protection
15 from fires. We're still using up our forests faster than 16 we're growing them, and some way has got to be found to 17 bring a balance between growth and use. And we've got a
18 lot of past mistakes to correct..we've wasted a lot of
19 our best timberland, and there's a big rehabilitation
20 job ahead to make all that land productive again..Yes, Wayne
21 if our country is going to make and keep our forests a
22 permanent national asset, there'll be plenty of work to do.
23
24
25

(CLEARING THROAT) I just want to say this, Wayne. You youngsters out there doing the heaviest fighting in this war. You're not alone in your thinking and planning about things to be done in the years ahead.

I hoped you'd say that, Mr. Robbins.

Of course this Pine Cone Forest here is the one I know

most about. Right now it's going its part to help win the war. But all over the country our forests

have gone to war..and there'll be plenty of work to be done for the forests of America, Wayne, when this war's over.

That's what I want to know, Mr. Robbins.

You see, Wayne, we've hardly made a start yet on real

forest conservation in this country. Millions of acres

of our forests don't even yet have adequate protection

from fires. We're still using up our forests faster than

we're growing them, and some way has got to be found to bring a balance between growth and use. And we've got a lot of past mistakes to correct..we've wasted a lot of our best timberland, and there's a big rehabilitation

job ahead to make all that land productive again..Yes, Wayne

if our country is going to make and keep our forests a permanent national asset, there'll be plenty of work to do.

1 WAYNE: Gee..do you suppose I could have a part in all that, Mr.
2 Robbins?

3 JIM: I don't see why not, Wayne..if you really want to work
4 for the forests.

5 WAYNE: That's swell, just swell.

6 MARY: Look at him, Mr. Robbins. He's positively beaming.

7 WAYNE: Why shouldn't I, Mary? Good gravy, haven't I got 8 a better reason than ever for getting back there to 9 the front and getting that job over with?

10 JIM: Yes, the war job comes first, Wayne.

11 WAYNE: You bet, Mr. Robbins. I'm not forgetting that for 12 a minute. But you've given me something to look ahead
13 to...something that's..that's worth while. You
14 can't blame a fellow for wanting something like that to 15 look ahead to, can you?

16 JIM: No, Wayne, nobody can blame a fellow for that.

17 MUSICAL FINALE

18 ANNOUNCER: Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers comes to you each week during
19 the National Farm and Home Hour as a network presentation
20 with the cooperation of the Forest Service, United 21 States Department of Agriculture.

22 KS

23 &

24 MK

See, do you suppose I could have a part in this, Mr. Wayne?

Bob, isn't it?

I don't see why not, Wayne. If you really want to work for the forest.

That's swell, just swell.

Look at him, Mr. Robbins. He's positively beaming.

Why shouldn't I, Mary? Good gravy, haven't I got a better reason than even for getting back there to the front and getting that job over with?

Yes, the war job comes first, Wayne.

You bet, Mr. Robbins. I'm not forgetting that for a minute. But you've given me something to look ahead

to... something that's... that's worth while. You can't blame a fellow for wanting something like that to

look ahead to, can you?

No, Wayne, nobody can blame a fellow for that.

MUSICALS FINALE

ANNOUNCER: Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers come to you each week during the National Farm and Home Hour as a network presentation
with the cooperation of the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture.